Cabinet Speculations

... NEW YORK TIMES
WASHINGTON Nov 9 1868

... that not an ... the ... members ... of Congress ... that may be ... a person ... General Grant s stand ... will select ... will be chosen ... everything that ... I am abundantly warranted in saying that no person whatsoever will know ... in advance who are to be ... Grant s Cabinet ... will be made by General Grant himself until after the Electoral College ... have performed ... declared him to be President In the mean time suggestions and information in regard to men from those entitled to speak will doubtless be very acceptable

In the selection of a Cabinet it is perfectly safe to say that no one consideration will have half so much weight as that of eminent fitness the ordinary considerations of locality, party service &c will be of less importance than ever heretofore The Chicago Convention discarded the test of locality and accepted that of eminent fitness and that principle will continue to be observed Loyalty will be the foundation and fitness the superstructure Locality will doubtless have its weight but if it cannot also combine fitness it must suffer and it will be the fault of locality not that of the choosing power Party services will be regarded all other things being equal but will receive its chief recognition in loyalty One general rule I am convinced will govern General Grant s administration on the subject of office The more a man seeks an office the less likely will he be to get it

Nothing is more natural than that the prospects merits and characteristics of persons named for Cabinet positions should be discussed Hence for the State Department three men are prominently named by the outsiders of course They are Edwin M Stanton Charles Sumner and J Lothrop Motley It is not known that Mr Stanton desires or that he would accept the position But there are many good arguments in favor of his appointment—among them his vigor integrity loyalty and the fact that his severe services during the war have so affected his health that he is substantially precluded from the necessary effort of rebuilding his professional practice It is doubted if Mr Sumner would take the position Massachusetts will give him another term which will round out his service in the Senate to the full period of a quarter of a century ranking him next to Benton In the Senate he has not only the field of diplomacy but the broader field of national politics In the Cabinet he would have nothing but a foreign policy no shaping hand in the destinies of the race for it is the race and not the individual that engrosses Mr Sumner s ablest efforts J Lothrop Motley would fill the position with rare ability and reflect honor and lustre upon the administration and country

Mr E B Washburne is of course included in every slate that is made up And it is conceded that if he prefers to go into the Cabinet rather than remain in the House he will But in what position? With some he is down for the State with others for the Treasury with still others for the Interior or Post Office It is safe to say he would not take the State Department if offered his health will scarcely allow him to accept so arduous a position as that of the Treasury and considerations of fitness health convenience and desirability associate him more closely with the Interior than with any other

Somehow or other the Treasury is naturally conceded to New York—for a question of locality will come in here and cannot be kept out The national credit must be maintained under all circumstances and a hard money man must be Secretary—a man who don t believe in greenbacks and who does believe in specie payments New York is the centre of such men produces the greatest number naturally it is the place to look for a Secretary of the Treasury when political considerations are not to control A host of names are mentioned from all parts of the country—Morton of Indiana Sherman of Ohio Hooper of Massachusetts Fenton Morgan Pomeroy David A Wells and Freeman Clark of New York and Jay Cooke of Pennsylvania Morton and Sherman are able men but have greenback heresies and will stay in the Senate Hooper is an able financier has had large experience in revenue matters in his position on the Ways and Means Committee but will stand no chance if a Secretary of State or Navy should be given to New England Fenton will be a candidate but will not be strong Morgan will probably come back to the Senate ... his name will be strongly presented Pomeroy is a very able man has been four years Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee is a strong friend of the National Banks an excellent lawyer and one of those, active vigorous executive men who always prove equal to any emergency He is not a candidate however Freeman Clarke is a strong friend of the banks and will be strongly urged though not popular David A Wells is the strongest name mentioned from anywhere Jay Cooke s name though mentioned is regarded as entirely impracticable

Nearly everybody concedes that Gen Schofield will be retained as Secretary of War if he desires to remain and I know some people who would give a great deal ... This has prevented any canvass for that position Gen Grant s warm friendship for Admiral Porter leads some people to believe that he will make that gallant officer Secretary of the Navy The only objection is in the fact that the navy is about equally divided into Porterites and anti Porterites and while the selection would be a very fit one in most respects it would be an unpopular one with a large part of the navy ... is selected no ... would add more dignity popularity and weight ... than that of Hon Alexander H Rice of Boston for many years Chairman of the House Naval Committee

There are ... strong reasons why the Pacific coast should be represented in the Cabinet but there seems to be a scarcity of the right kind of men in that direction which is also the case with Pennsylvania If therefore neither are represented in the selections it will probably be the fault of the locality rather than that of the chooser For Postmaster General Ex Governor Dennison of Ohio is favorably named Governor Curtin and Judge Kelly of Pennsylvania Hon H L Dawes of Massachusetts and Senator Williams of Oregon are also mentioned For Attorney General Senator Frelinghuysen of New Jersey ... and Hon Sam ... Shellabarger ...

GRANT S CABINET
From the New York ... (editorial)

The public ... are already busy with speculations ... the men whom General Grant is likely to select for his Cabinet Of course many ... are mentioned ... for each office A list ... of the ... interesting and may ... readers and afford matter for future ...

... the State Department we see mentioned the names of ... Mr ... and Mr ... speaks of Mr ... in public life seems ... to be regarded as ... Francis Adams ... Mr Cameron of Pennsylvania ... the ... made by Mr Lincoln in calling him to his Cabinet

Whoever may be chosen of one thing we may be sure, that Grant will tolerate no one there who will put up with such flunkeyism as Reverdy Johnson s ... longer than it takes a cable telegraph to recall him

For the Treasury of course there are more candidates than for any other place and almost every prominent public man in the Republican party is mentioned and almost every State presents a candidate The practical mind of Grant will incline him to choose some one who is familiar with the duties and the requirements of the ... and we are glad to notice that the name of David A Wells the present able Revenue ... is among those prominently mentioned Mr Wells is not a politician, and will have perhaps less merely political influence in his favor than any other of the prominent candidates But that ought not to stand in his way, and probably will not with Grant who ... his subordinates for their ability and who knows by experience that the possession of political influence ... always denote the best man

In the Treasury we need the leading spirit of the administration The war in the field is over; the great battle remains to be fought in our finances We must have a man there who is ... and will give to the reforms needed, and to the establishment of a policy the same skill, devotion and indomitable courage which Grant gave to the war It takes as much more ... to fight the army of speculators schemers, plunderers and blunderers who attack the Treasury as it did to win a surrender at Appomattox

Mr Wells has shown great capacity and ... in his study of the revenue He understands the industrial condition and needs of the country more accurately and thoroughly, perhaps, than any man in it He has always shown ... above political influence or ambition faithful to the best interests of the country and his selection would be a guarantee that the affairs of the Treasury would be managed without tinkering, that the revenue would be collected vigorously, and that the whole scheme of taxation would be simplified as it very much needs to be.

For the War Department the names of Schofield Sherman and Sheridan are mentioned. The Navy Department it is said is claimed by New England and Mr Fessenden is spoken of, as well as Admiral Porter Senator Grimes, and ... of Massachusetts For Postmaster General, rumor mentions Dennison of Ohio, Dawes of Massachusetts Curtin and Kelly of Pennsylvania and Williams of Oregon and for Attorney General James F Wilson of Iowa, ... of Ohio Frelinghuysen of New Jersey, and several others are spoken of Such speculations as we have spoken of ... the public and it is pleasant to see that the names thus prominently mentioned are all ... of respectable men But after all, Grant, it is probable will make his own choice. If he ... find a Southern man of ability and loyalty, he will probably try to call such a man to his Cabinet, and in this he will have the approval of the public But he can be trusted to make a good selection One of his greatest qualities as ... in the conduct of the war was the ... sagacity with which he selected the best men for special duties He never, we believe, ... take and it is probable that he will now surround himself with the fittest men to perform the duty which he must delegate to others He is not likely to forget that what the country expects of him is a pure economical and efficient administration

Religious Notes

The Baptists it is said, have added ... 000 by baptism to their communion, ... the present year They now number, in this country over 1 100 000

Rev S Menton, a very ... man of the Church of England, has ... a sensation by announcing his belief ... the doctrine of eternal punishment is ... tural

A Jewish convert asserts, in the ... Star that 130 clergymen of the Church of England are converted Jews, and that in the city of London there are between 2,000 and 3 000 converts from Judaism

The Christian Advocate, of New York, ... that the statistics of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the past year, show an ... of Sunday-schools of 1,296, of ... and teachers of 12,754, of scholars 101,269

It is said that the Presbyterian ... of standing while engaged in prayer had its rise in the dislike which the early followers of that sect felt toward "genuflection," or any custom in use among the "Papists," to whom they felt the strongest aversion

Eight years ago there were no Sunday schools in Germany now there are 66, with 11 299 scholars and in German Switzerland 19 with 2 353 scholars They had their origin in the efforts of an American ... named Woodruff who addressed several audiences at Bremen on the subject, a German merchant acting as his interpreter and the latter has since devoted himself to the Sunday school work with the results named.

A comparison of the tables shows that the Republican vote for President in November was 380 larger than the vote for Congressman in June while the Democratic vote was reduced 664 in the same time The total vote in June last was 22 369 in November 22 086 Four years ago the whole vote for President was 18,345 The closeness of the vote of last month shows the Republicans in spite of Democratic frauds, might have secured the electoral vote of the State with very little effort

England Confessing Judgment

During our late civil war there were many evidences that it was the settled purpose and fixed policy of the British Government to accomplish the disruption of the United States by encouraging and assisting as far as possible, the rebel cause The conduct of Great Britain showed that she was jealous of the growing power of the United States Aware that the suppression of the rebellion would consolidate our national strength and start us forward in a new career of development the illiberal minds of England hoped that the political separation of the two sections of this country would be permanent This hostility thus entertained toward us by the British Government, as well as its object was confessed a few weeks ago by Mr Roebuck a leading statesman of England in a speech to the electors of Sheffield He said 'When the American rebellion broke out at as large a meeting in Sheffield as was ever met together, I asked that we should acknowledge the Southern States as sovereign and independent My belief was that the American people, by-and-by, would become so numerous that they would be all powerful among mankind My object was to prevent the United States from having that immense uncontrolled power, and I said, Here is the opportunity, we can take it with perfect safety After that meeting I went back to London and in a day or two it was necessary for me to wait on the Prime Minister I waited upon Lord Palmerston The moment I got into his room he exclaimed Roebuck, Roebuck, what a devilish good speech you made in Sheffield I am entirely of your opinion but dare not officially say so Here is an open avowal that the policy of England was to break up our Union and assist the rebel government, that this policy met the heartiest approval of the Prime Minister and that only the fears of the British Government prevented them from openly espousing the cause of the American rebels Not more than six weeks ago these statements were made amid the approving cheers of the electors of Sheffield by a man whose conduct during the civil war was signalized by the most venomous hostility to the Union cause What further evidence is needed to establish the justice of our claims to indemnity for the losses inflicted by such agents of England s hostility as the rebel pirate Alabama ?

The Public Debt Statement

The debt statement for this month will show, it is said, an increase of about ten millions This increase is attributable to two causes, viz The payment of interest and the issuance of Pacific Railroad bonds In November and May the semi annual interest on the five-twenties of 1862, 1864 and 1865 falls due to the amount of twenty five millions of dollars To the withdrawal of coin from the Treasury during the month of November to pay this interest, the apparent increase of the debt is mainly due and the figures are still further swelled by the issue during the same month of nearly two millions of dollars in bonds for the railroad enterprises which are receiving Government subsidies The increase of the debt then is apparent rather than real The debt statements are never absolutely accurate because the amount of interest due at any particular time is never taken into account While the interest is accumulating the debt decreases rapidly and when the interest is paid there is an apparent increase The way to determine the actual amount of reduction is to observe the progress from year to year Deducting the Pacific Railroad bonds which are strictly not a part of the debt but only an endorsement for the companies and it will be found that the debt is much smaller than at any time since the close of the war The actual reduction in three years and a half [illegible] three hundred millions of dollars

NEWS IN DETAIL

THE SITUATION IN NEW ORLEANS

The following letter was written by a citizen of New Orleans to Hon Wm D Kelley of Philadelphia just before the Presidential election

I fervently trust that as soon after the election as possible the Generals in command here [illegible] will be held to a rigid accountability for their criminal partiality of their administration here Their whole course [illegible] shows that the real object in sending them to this State was to cause its votes to be given to Seymour and Blair and they have scrupled at nothing to accomplish this object The scheme of the rebels of this State to intimidate its Republicans by inaugurating a system of wholesale murder and violence was matured long ago and its practical workings have been contemplated by these officers without one well meant effort to check or stop it So completely have they thrown themselves into the arms of the so called Democracy of this State that they are regarded by all parties as its leaders They have not been ashamed to assist in the celebrations of our opponents and to address them in public on party topics While they have always shown the most cordial regard for our enemies they have not attempted to conceal their aversion for us even in their correspondence The men under their command have never succeeded in preventing rebel wrong doing or in punishing it when done They usually appear after a bloody deed has been perpetrated, and then their action is to arrest the assailed or to shield the assailant from the possibility of retaliation For the greater part new recruits many of whom served in the rebel army and enlisted here these men have caught the spirit of their commanders No rebel ruffian has anything to fear from them whatever may be [illegible] our city [illegible] They go about the streets expressing audibly the desire that every [illegible] nigger should be killed I hold the officers to be chiefly responsible for the innocent blood that has been shed in this State since it was cursed with their presence I sincerely trust that with the election of General Grant justice as well as peace and order will once more be established in this God forsaken region, and the laws of the nation as effectually enforced as were the orders of the Confederacy during its sway If our hopes are realized these faithless officers will be dismissed from the service which they have disgraced In the meantime I but express the wish of every loyal heart here that the General of our armies will exercise the authority which it is believed rests in his hands, unimpaired by the organization of the State to dispose of the forces under his command and relieve us from the presence of men who are justly regarded with more aversion than Beauregard or Hays

THE PROPOSED DIVISION OF NEW YORK STATE

[From the Philadelphia Bulletin]

Certain journals of New York State propose to sunder the holy ties that unite Manhattan to solid land This is certainly a cruel proposition We would not have New York State divided first because the myth of the Empire State would no longer be found among the poetry of our politics second because New York City is a stereotyped sermon to all the inhabitants of the great State See what capital the divines made out of the wickedest man in that city ! How many thousand homilies he provided So the wickedest city in the State, or even the nation can be used To the State it is a calcium iniquity—a continued admonition to beware of the turpitude and crime which make the Five Points a Democratic hell If New York city were not so strongly Democratic, perhaps New York State would not be so strongly Republican If 800 000 people control 3 500 000—if a few square miles of Territory are of more importance than a few thousand square miles—what matters it? That is Democratic But third that must be a hard heart which would deprive the Judge McCunns and Barnards of the land of the happy privilege of naturalizing all Ireland before it sets sail for America This would be a cruel blow to an ambitious judiciary Wisdom, law morals decency and common sense alike revolt at such a guillotining process Who would make starvelings of such amiable creatures ? Fourth, there are the "rings ," what would become of them ? Without the presence of the State they would turn cannibals and take to eating one another up Awful calamity ! Can not the Republicans of New York tolerate such harmless anacondas in their midst ? Finally, we must have some Democratic black holes in the country and as the size and resources of New York State are ample we know of no place that can bear with the diseases that arise therefrom better than that portion of our country included between the Hudson and Lake Erie

THE FOURTH WARD PHILADELPHIA

[From the Philadelphia Press]

It is well known how the October election was carried in Philadelphia by the aid of New York rowdies Without coloring or comment we will state some facts disclosed by the returns from the Fourth ward, at the Presidential election on Tuesday last

This ward is returned as having cast a majority for Seymour almost double that given to Boyle last month, which was then considered enormous This week it gives 3,303 in October, 1 736

The entire vote alleged to have been cast is for Grant 1 085 , for Seymour 4 390—making a total of 5 477 Allowing one vote to every seven people, the ordinary ratio, the ward would have a population of 39 339

Alderman McMullin's division the eighth of this ward, polled 1 354 votes, of which 1,201 were Democratic

The sixth division of this ward polled 1 046 of which 1 013 were Democratic Through these two precincts run Bedford Baker and Spafford streets the filthiest of the slums of the city

The figures reveal that during the eleventh hour just so many Seymour votes were stuffed in the box as were wanted and during some portions of the day votes were cast at the same rapid rate that voters are manufactured at our agile Nisi Prius

These are the facts we have no comment to make on them If every citizen does not know or will not do his duty it is for some reason that an appeal to patriotism or a sense of justice could not alter

OPPOSITION TO SENATOR CASSERLY

[From the Oakland (Cal) Transcript]

It is understood that Mr Casserly will encounter obstinate resistance from some of his own party at Washington General Volney E Howard, we understand, is vowing by all the Democratic gods that Casserly shall never take his seat in the Senate, and is threatening to expose and prove alleged corruption in his election Howard is a man of great resolution and mental power and it will not surprise us to hear that the Senator elect has encountered difficulties of a formidable character A large and influential class of his party were greatly dissatisfied with his election, and it does not appear that the charges of corruption alleged by Gen Howard last spring have been satisfactorily cleared away Whatever Mr Casserly's agency may or may not have been in the matter, it is not difficult to believe that many individuals of that Legislature were capable of being influenced by large sums of money

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA BOUNDARY LINE

[From the Yreka Journal Nov [illegible]]

D G Major and sons, with their party now engaged in surveying the California and Oregon boundary line have just crossed the Klamath river at Kellbrow s Ferry and were about taking observations above the ferry three or four miles near Grizzly Hill which hill is supposed to be in this State The probabilities are that Cole s Mountain House is in California and the line so far run has taken into California several sections heretofore claimed by our county authorities where taxes have been paid under protest All of Butte Hill and Willow Creeks running into Klamath Lake are in California and so are the valleys of Butte Creek and Willow Creek The Oregonians are very much disappointed in their estimates of the location of the boundary and have claimed several miles further south than it is though no interference with the California claims had ever been offered by Oregonians further than paying taxes under protest The surveying party use the compass in the day time and take observations at midnight, going back on their line after advancing a short distance so as to make the survey indisputably correct The lakes and marshes on the route make the surveying in many places exceedingly difficult requiring much time to pass certain points The surveyors have located monuments at every mile where they can with the latitude and longitude and the number of miles from the Nevada line thereon Some of the party will probably visit town in a few days as soon as they complete their observations across the Klamath The disputed territory so far as Siskiyou county is concerned will soon be settled and next year there will be no dodging the Assessor as heretofore The State and county authorities will also know where their positive jurisdiction extends, and knowing it, can make all such improvements necessary to develop the country, without fear of losing the benefits to be derived in the way of revenue and business.

Late Political Items

In the town of Goshen Vermont there was only one Democrat last September and he boasted [illegible] for Grant as he said he would at the time Republican gain 100 per cent!

The late Governor [illegible] was one of the Electors at large chosen to cast the vote of Ohio for Grant and Colfax as President and Vice President His death leaves a vacancy to be filled as the law directs

The Washington correspondent of the Rochester Express says It is whispered in Washington that David A Wells has the inside track at present for the position of Secretary of the Treasury under President Grant

A Washington dispatch says General Grant was asked by a visitor if it was true that he had directed his private secretary General Badeau to destroy all applications for office without showing them to him Yes said General Grant some of the applications might be from good men and I don't want to get prejudiced against them by their untimely haste

The Cincinnati Enquirer styles the proposition to make Grant select a cabinet from among [illegible] a singular [illegible] in these singular times The [illegible] upon which it is based is that it might induce General Grant to pursue a conservative course The Enquirer says [illegible] the proposition [illegible] General Grant it adds might appear to be independent of party while he would spurn anything [illegible] the radical faction [illegible] conciliate the supposed prejudices of the President elect We are [illegible] the Enquirer is not very far out of the way

A WARNING TO THE EAST —[illegible] Edwards Clarke in the November Galaxy in an extremely readable and valuable article on the Rocky Mountain country lets drop an admonitory warning to the Eastern cities which it is the part of prudence to consider In New York says this philosophical and far sighted writer [illegible] demonstrated that [illegible] in danger of unconsciously limiting their views by the boundaries of Manhattan Island forgetting that New York is but the pier at which those wondrous people of the West load the ships they send over all the oceans laden with food for the world Says the Philadelphia Press This city as well as New York may take heed A ride to the divide of the Continent and a sight of the mighty people [illegible] on the illimitable plains of either slope will drive out the last vestige of provincial pride and self esteem

CHARITY [illegible] professing to be virtuous on many occasions forget that to be charitable to a fellow being is the least virtue a person can possess It is not always by giving money that [illegible] the afflicted that a person can only show their charity A good advice is often better than money for instance Meeting a person who wishes to purchase a common or fine suit of clothes or any other article in the Clothing or Dry Goods line [illegible] a charitable act toward that person to recommend them to go to K [illegible] & [illegible] and being certain that at that house they can purchase at the lowest rates and receive good goods and where the most particular can be satisfied!

[illegible] ACROSS THE WILLAMETTE.—Some time since a [illegible] was circulated here and signed by nearly every[illegible] Congress to make an appropriation to aid [illegible] a railroad bridge across the Willamette be[illegible] city and East Portland. We think it was the [illegible] of the petitioners to ask for the aid in behalf of [illegible] railroad company and to give them control [illegible] however, that wagons, animals and [illegible] be permitted to cross at all times free. [illegible] This was not expressed we believe, in the [illegible] but there could be no doubt but that the de[illegible] [illegible] have it. We notice, however, that the [illegible], with its usual predisposition to intermeddle [illegible] has started in to memorialize Congress [illegible] right to the city to build a bridge and to [illegible] of it. We do not gather from the published [illegible] of the Council that it is the design to ask [illegible] the aid prayed for in the petition above men[illegible] simply to ask for the right to build. This [illegible] appeal from the other and for practical [illegible] in opposition to it. For what does the city [illegible] to build when it has neither ability or [illegible] build it? What is the use of talking about [illegible] across the Willamette, when it fails for [illegible] so insignificant a bridge as the one need[illegible] creek? If the Council simply wants [illegible] why not join in the effort started by the [illegible] company, and let the company have [illegible] such restrictions as would secure the [illegible] city and people? It seems to be the bent of [illegible] to do everything in some other way than as [illegible] other people. And it generally succeeds in [illegible] defeating every public enterprise in which [illegible]

[illegible] TANNER CREEK.—Messrs. R. J. Jeffrey and [illegible] engaged in the effort to raise a subscrip[illegible] sufficient to pay for building a bridge across [illegible] Creek on B street. They propose to build a [illegible] to be a span of fifty feet, twenty feet [illegible] timber, a good floor and a railing on each [illegible] to be subject to examination and accept[illegible] [illegible] composed of Messrs. A. H. Johnson, [illegible] Y. James and Richard White. They also [illegible] to plank B street from block 105 to [illegible] intersects the county road, for the [illegible] the work to be subject to approval by the [illegible] This is work that the city ought to do, [illegible] been talked about, fruitlessly for the last year [illegible] private enterprise is called in to do the work. [illegible] About half of the required amount has [illegible] subscribed, and it is important that the [illegible] be raised at once. From the west bank of [illegible] there is an excellent road to the country [illegible] would be much traveled, if teams could [illegible] and get along B street. As it is, the road [illegible] and most of the teams which could one [illegible] and go out on that road, are forced to make [illegible] via Springville or travel the Canyon road, [illegible] such horrible condition as to be nearly im[illegible] the Council which has let this matter se[illegible] in the past, will only keep hands off now, [illegible] that the gentlemen above named will [illegible] a decent way upon which to come in [illegible]

[illegible] CONNECTION FOR OREGON.—The Yreka Jour[illegible] People all over the Pacific Coast are much [illegible] railroads, and the prospects are that as soon as [illegible] road makes a connection, there will be [illegible] all the projected branch roads. The Cali[illegible] as soon as they meet the Union Pacific near [illegible] putting their force on the California [illegible] road, and the prospects are, the California [illegible] built before the Oregon road gets anywhere [illegible] Siskiyou. The overland road is expected to [illegible] some time next spring, though such [illegible] continue separate lines at leisure, so as to [illegible] of forming any connection, further [illegible] option of shippers and passengers." [illegible] always been of the opinion that the people of [illegible] valley could ride by rail from home to the [illegible], sooner than from Portland to Eugene [illegible] of the Oregon roads. There can be no longer [illegible] that the competition between the Union Pa[illegible] Pacific companies for a branch to the [illegible] valley will be as sharp as that now exerted to [illegible] end of the transcontinental road. Those [illegible] will meet and form through connection [illegible] and then will begin the scramble for [illegible] branch. With their immense resources and [illegible] for building, they can either of them build [illegible] miles sooner than we can reasonably expect [illegible] of one hundred miles of the Oregon road, [illegible] auspices.

[illegible] SIDEWALKS AND CROSSINGS.—Again. At [illegible] of being thought impertinent, we propose to [illegible] about the littered, obstructed, muddy, nasty, [illegible] condition of the streets and sidewalks. The [illegible] many places are horribly muddy, without the [illegible] in particular; but in other places where [illegible] be removed or obviated, it is deep enough [illegible] In about 1001 places they are obstructed [illegible] lumber piles and every other piles forbid[illegible] and every consideration of convenience [illegible] the sidewalks are obstructed by all [illegible] sorts of articles of commerce. In [illegible] have mixed up mortar and left [illegible] on the sidewalk. In 327 places, carpenters [illegible] the sidewalk, as a shop and have left their chips [illegible] just where they fell. In 26 places black[illegible] their iron and coal and parts of wagons, [illegible] hoes, etc., on the sidewalk. In 405 places [illegible] are dangerous from being littered with [illegible] stinking vegetables. In 1720 other places [illegible] obstructed with old planks, chunks of wood, [illegible] of hay, and 1100 other things too numerous [illegible] Won't somebody, for the credit of the city [illegible] to better this state of things?

[illegible] STAMPS.—We find in an exchange, the [illegible] description of the new postage stamps: The [illegible] will be smaller than those used at present, [illegible] of a superior style and finish, with a novelty [illegible] The two cent stamps contain an engraving of [illegible] horse in full speed. The three cent stamp [illegible] locomotive under full head of steam, the great car[illegible] domestic service. The five cent stamp con[illegible] head of Washington. The ten cent stamp, the [illegible] in design and execution, has a miniature [illegible] of the Declaration of Independence, executed [illegible] delicacy and precision, that the picture suffers [illegible] under the magnifying glass. The twenty cent [illegible] an ocean steamship, and the thirty cent has a [illegible] engraving of the surrender of Burgoyne."

[illegible] BANK CAVED.—One of the high banks of "Bees[illegible] Canal," in the southern part of the city, [illegible] yesterday morning, carrying with it a string [illegible] and burying the sidewalk completely. A number [illegible] were, a moment before, playing on the side[illegible] under the bank. A gentleman who happened [illegible] observed indications of a cave and warned [illegible] off. In a moment more the bank came [illegible] It was a narrow escape for the juveniles. There [illegible] high banks in the city, made by grading the [illegible] will likely come down as soon as the ground [illegible] saturated with water. The Street Commission[illegible] other man," should look to them.

[illegible] PACKING HOUSE.—Mr. A. H. Johnson having quit [illegible] business, is now engaged largely in butcher[illegible] packing, and has an extensive establishment on [illegible] street, opposite the P. T. Co.'s wharf. He is [illegible] now a large lot of pork, on contract, for the [illegible] authorities in this Department. His meats have [illegible] thus in all the markets to which we export.

[illegible]—We met, yesterday, Mr. Cris. Taylor, of [illegible] who is on his way to Puget Sound. He reports [illegible] lovely in Yamhill.

[illegible] Johnson, of the Yamhill Courier, made us [illegible] call last evening.

[illegible] Bewley and Meacham returned from Salem yes[illegible] The latter goes on home this morning, and in a [illegible] start overland for Washington.

[illegible]—The low stage of water in the rivers of [illegible] coast has had no precedent within a good [illegible] if ever, since the settlement of the country. [illegible] of December the Wallamet and its tribu[illegible] at dead low water mark—and lower than [illegible] in the dryest part of the summer. Within the last [illegible] however, the water has been rising slowly [illegible] that by next Monday, the smaller up[illegible] will make an attempt to reach Corvallis or, [illegible]

[illegible] BRICKS.—The Napa Register characterized [illegible] at San Francisco as the result, evi[illegible] of an attempt on the part of Mother Earth to im[illegible] "hump and stoop" of the Grecian Bend. The [illegible] papers now speak of each successive shake as [illegible] violent Grecian Bend," or as "a gentle Grecian [illegible] Bend."

[illegible] MUCKLE COME.—The Alert brought down last [illegible] one hundred and fifty Chinamen, who have [illegible] upon the East Side Railroad. From seventy [illegible] more are expected down to-morrow. They [illegible] the neighborhood of Salem.

[illegible] social gathering of the Congregational [illegible] for this evening, will be postponed to [illegible] next week, and will be at the residence [illegible] corner Jefferson and Third streets.

ONE FIVE THEATRE.—The beautiful drama of "Aurora Floyd" was performed last evening to a very good house, and it was received with great applause. Like "London Assurance" it has several star characters, is rapid in incident, rather dashing in some of its scenes, and retains the interest of the audience throughout. The cast is one of the best we have seen. [illegible] as John Mellish, makes a first rate Yorkshire gentleman, and Mrs. Bates is excellent as Aurora Floyd. She sings, in the piece, two very pretty ballads. [illegible], as Stephen Hargrave, plays a splendid character well, and [illegible], as [illegible], was [illegible]. Miss [illegible] played Mary Marchmont [illegible]. The [illegible] had little to do [illegible] man's [illegible] amusing and last night [illegible] with great laughter. The piece will be [illegible] to-night.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—General Badeau, of General Grant's staff, stated to-day, in answer to a question as to whether General Grant intended to be present at the Evarts dinner, that it would depend on whether Secretaries Randall, McCulloch or Welles would be the guests, as the President did not desire to meet any of those gentlemen.

There were rumors of failures on the streets to-day, but only one firm was brought in under the rule. Brokers have stood the violent fluctuations remarkably well. The transactions in gold were enormous, the gross clearings reaching $177,000,000.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 16.—Official returns have now been received from all but ten counties on the State, and the majority for Grant will be about 24,000; for Congressmen, some 1,500. The Fourth District complete gives Grant 13,155, Seymour, 17,740; Frisby, 13,255; Eldridge, 17,738. The vote of one county is yet lacking in the Third.

Horrors of the Silent System in Prison.

Mr. James Greenwood has published in London a frightful account of the silent system, which is in operation at the Holloway Model Prison in London:

It is an offense for a prisoner to speak one word, and he was never addressed except in whispers, so that he may be in the prison for two years without hearing the natural sound of a human voice! The effect of this is so terrible on the mind that prisoners will speak out in desperation at the risk of any punishment, rather than endure that horrible silence.

The prisoners never see one another, but remain in perpetual solitude. One poor wretch, driven to desperation by nine months' solitude and silence, recklessly broke out in Mr. Greenwood's presence in these words: "For God's sake Governor, put me in another cell! Put me somewhere else! I have counted the bricks in the cell I am in till my eyes ache!"

The request of the tortured wretch was refused!

There is a fine hole in each cell, and as the warders wear shoes with India rubber soles, the prisoner can never be sure that he is alone.

Those condemned to the treadmill have to ascend twelve hundred steps every alternate twenty minutes for six hours! And this in a place so hot and close that prisoners often lose in perspiration three stone in as many months! Every day they are taken to a chapel so arranged that they can see no one save the chaplain, and him only through an iron grating. And this is the order of devotion observed: "Warders are constantly on the watch lest for a single instant they, through the whole of the service, depart from the rigid rule of 'eyes right.' They must look steadfastly at the preacher; must raise and lower their prayer-books with elbows squared and all at once, like soldiers at drill. They may not scrape their feet without having afterwards to explain the movement. They may scarcely wink an eye or sigh without danger of rebuke or punishment. God help them, poor wretches!"

A. JOHNSON AND HIS FRIENDS.—The Philadelphia News, bread and butter organ, says "President Johnson states very freely that he never thought Seymour would be elected, and that since the October elections Grant had nothing to do but walk over the course. He does not manifest any regret, as he thinks the Democrats did not deserve success."

Farragut, like Grant, "loves to steal a march" upon such of his friends as propose to tender him a public reception. Both of our great officers are fond of flank movements.

GRACEFUL AND PLEASING.—Those new and beautiful styles of Parlor Suites, now so fashionable at the East, Can be seen at Sturgess & Shindler's. Also, many rare articles of ornament and use, for the parlor and the house.

NIGHT SCHOOL.—Mr. Fitzgerald has opened a Night School in the schoolhouse (up stairs) near the Catholic Church. For Terms—See the Teacher.

ARMED TO THE TEETH—Is a very common expression, but we think armed to embellish and preserve them to a ripe old age is decidedly more beneficial and appropriate—this can only be done by keeping yourself always supplied with a bottle of that renowned and imperishable delight of every lady's or gentleman's toilet, the fragrant SOZODONT.

Always ready for use "SPALDING'S GLUE."

A distinguished Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly ever failed to find PLANTATION BITTERS, and while he condemned the practice of using those Bitters too freely, he could not conscientiously say that he would discard them from the sideboard, for he had himself experienced beneficial results from their use, and that, from a long and close observation, he was convinced that when used moderately, and as a medicine exclusively, they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with.

CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 A D 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts. The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

CELEBRATED
AROMATIC
SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OREGON:

I BEG LEAVE TO CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE citizens of Oregon to my celebrated AROMATIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, a medicinal diet drink of eminently salutary qualities manufactured by myself, exclusively, at my factory at Schiedam, in Holland.

In Gravel, Gout and Rheumatism, in Obstructions of the Bladder and Kidneys, its effects are prompt, decided, and invariably reliable.

It is now some twenty years since the Proprietor first introduced it to the American public, and during that time he has received over 5,000 letters from physicians endorsing it as the purest liquor they have ever used in their practice.

It is made from barley of the finest quality, selected with great care from the products of the most celebrated grain growing districts, is flavored with the essence of the aromatic Juniper berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit every acrid particle.

As a means of preventing and correcting the disagreeable and often dangerous effects produced on the stomach and bowels by a change of water, a vitiating [illegible] to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacclimated persons are peculiarly liable—the

SCHIEDAM AROMATIC SCHNAPPS

Will be found absolutely infallible, while, in cases of dropsy, gravel, obstructions of the kidneys, diseases of the bladder, stricture, dyspepsia and general debility, it is recommended most emphatically by the most distinguished members of the medical profession.

It is put up in quart and pint bottles, in cases with the name of the undersigned on the bottle and cork, and a fac simile of his signature on the label. For sale by all respectable druggists and country merchants.

Are you WEAK, DEBILITATED, NERVOUS? Is your sleep disturbed? Do you have palpitation of the heart or an inclination to melancholy? Diseases of such nature require a prompt DIURETIC, which will be found in Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

September Term, 1868

The Eagle Woolen Mills Co., Appellant, vs. Thos. Monteith & Harry B. Smith, Respondents.

This is a suit to restrain the defendants from selling certain real estate upon an execution then in the hands of the defendant Harry B. Smith, Sheriff of Linn county, issued out of the Circuit Court in favor of defendant Monteith against a corporation called the Linn County Woolen Mills Company.

From 1861 to 1864 there existed a partnership firm called by the same name as the Linn Co. Woolen Mills Co. In June 1864 the owners of quite all the interests composing that partnership became stockholders in a corporation of that name then created, and the partnership ceased on forming the corporation. The property upon which the execution was levied consisted of two parcels of land, one of which had a water power, was the more valuable, and had been occupied by the partnership, and afterwards by the corporation known as the Linn Co. Woolen Mills Co.; the second parcel was conveyed June 1, 1864, by Wm. McHargue and wife, Andrew J. Warren and wife and A. S. Bassett and wife to "the President and Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company and their successors in office for the use and benefit of the Linn Co. Woolen Mills Company."

The first parcel was conveyed May [illegible] 1861 by Blakely & McHargue and their wives to H. J. C. Averill, (and seven others named) Trustees of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company and their successors in office.

It is not shown that any conveyance was ever made from the copartnership to the corporation of the same name, but it is admitted the corporation came into possession and continued until the making of the deeds "I" and "S" hereinafter mentioned.

In March 1865, the factory of the Linn Co. Woolen Mills Co. burned down, and that company, being in embarassed and failing circumstances, was indebted to divers persons, among whom were the defendant Monteith and the grantees named in the deeds marked "I" and "S." The individuals who were then President and Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Co., with a view to make these grantees preferred creditors, made those two deeds.

The deeds are in the following form:

DEED "I."

This deed made this 29th day of March, 1865, between Wm. McHargue, the President of the Board of Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company and A. S. Bassett, Claiborne Hill and H. J. C. Averill, the Directors of said Company, parties of the first part and John Brown, Wm. B. Smith, Silas Powell and Elias Keeny, parties of the second, witnesseth: that the parties of the first part, for and in behalf of said Company, for and in consideration of the sum of three thousand ($3,000 00) dollars paid, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained and sold unto the parties of the second part, the following described premises to wit: (Description.)

In testimony whereof the said Wm. McHargue as President, as aforesaid, and the said A. S. Bassett, Claiborne Hill and H. J. C. Averill, of the said parties of the first part, for and in behalf of said Linn County Woolen Mills Company have hereunto set their hands and affixed their official seals on the day and year herein written.

DEED "S."

This indenture witnesseth that we, the President and Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company, that is to say, Wm. McHargue, President, and H. J. C. Averill, A. S. Bassett and Claiborne Hill, Directors, for the consideration of twelve hundred dollars, to us paid, have bargained and sold, and by these presents do bargain and sell and convey unto Hugh L. Brown and Edward R. Geary, jointly, the following described premises, to wit: (Description.)

To have and to hold the said premises with the houses, tenements and hereditaments thereunto and thereunto belonging, unto the said Hugh L. Brown and Edward R. Geary, their heirs and assigns, forever. And we, the President and Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company, do hereby covenant to and with the said Hugh L. Brown and Edward R. Geary their heirs and assigns forever, and (that) said President and Directors of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company, is the owner, in fee simple of said premises; that they are free from all encumbrances, and that the said Company will warrant and defend the same from all lawful claims whatsoever.

Witness our hands and seals this 29th day of March, A. D. 1865.

WM. McHARGUE, President [SEAL.]
H. J. C. AVERILL, } Directors [SEAL.]
A. S. BASSETT,
CLAIBORNE HILL
A. E. ELLIS, } Witnesses.
A. ANDREWS.

The former of the two deeds describes the parcel of land first mentioned, and the latter the second parcel.

The grantees named in deeds "I" and "S" ex[illegible] conveyances to the plaintiffs.

The defendant, Monteith, prosecuted his demand against the Linn County Woolen Mills Company to judgment and issued execution upon which the defendant, Smith, advertised both these parcels to be sold on the 13th of April, 1867, as the property of the corporation, the Linn County Woolen Mills Company.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff is seized in fee simple of the premises, that plaintiff is now and for a long time has been owner and in possession thereof, and has erected a woolen factory [illegible] of the value of $100,000. And by way of a more particular specification of title, the complaint asserts that "the said real estate had been by said Linn County Woolen Mills Company sold and conveyed in good faith and for a valuable consideration, by proper deeds, on the 29th day of March, 1865, a part to John Brown, Wm. B. Smith, Silas Powell and Elias Keeny for the consideration of $3,000, which said deed is marked 'I,' attached to and made a part of this complaint. The residue, on the 29th day of March, 1865, to Hugh L. Brown and Edward R. Geary, for the consideration of $1,200, which said deed is marked 'S,' attached to and made part of this complaint."

The answer denies the allegations of ownership, denies any sale of the premises by the Linn County Woolen Mills Company, denies that deeds "I" and "S" are the deeds of that company.

Alleges property in the Linn County Woolen Mills Company and avers "that the said Linn County Woolen Mills Company has not been divested of the title to said real estate, or any part thereof."

The replication denies the material allegations of the answer and declares that "it is not true that the said corporation, the said Linn County Woolen Mills Company, had not been divested of the title to the said real estate mentioned in said plaintiff's complaint." The pleadings contained other averments which it is not necessary here to particularize.

Upton J., delivered the opinion of the Court.

The plaintiff is not in a position to raise the first point suggested in appellant's brief, that is, that the legal title was never in the Linn County Woolen Mills Company.

The complaint shows the L. Co. W. M. Co. to have been in possession of the premises and traces the plaintiff's alleged title through and from that company and does not claim under any order, better or adverse title. In favor of a defendant, possession is a good title against all the world unless a prior possession or better title is shown.

The plaintiff comes into a court of equity praying relief in favor of a title which, by its own statement, comes to the plaintiff through the L. Co. W. M. Co.

One will not be permitted to dispute a title which he himself sets up, and upon which he predicates all his right.

If it were true in fact and appeared in the case that the Linn County Woolen Mills Company never had title to the premises, it would be questionable whether a sale under an execution against the property of that company could create a [illegible] upon the plaintiff's title. It may well be questioned whether it does not devolve on the plaintiff to show affirmatively that the legal title or some other [illegible] is in the Linn County Woolen Mills Company to enable the plaintiff to [illegible] the principle that otherwise [illegible] the execution would not create a cloud.

The next and principal point made in the case involves a much more important and difficult question, namely, whether the deeds marked "I" and "S" were effectual to transfer the interest of the corporation.

The appellant claims, first, that they are the deeds of the corporation and passed the legal title, and second, that if from any defect in their form or substance they cannot have that effect [illegible] the legal title they [illegible] equitable interest that should be protected in this suit.

It is claimed [illegible] with reference to the [illegible] of the parties at the time of their execution show that the parties intended the instruments should operate to convey the property to the grantees in satisfaction of the claims respectively held by them against the corporation, the L. Co. W. M. Co. There is reason to believe such was the intention of the officers of that corporation, and if this was a suit against the Linn Co. W. M. Co., with no intervening interests to complicate the case, that consideration might be decisive upon the principle that equity treats a thing as done which ought to be done and things agreed to be done as actually performed. Between the plaintiffs and the Linn Co. W. M. Co., if the officers acting within the range of their duties had placed the plaintiff in a position in which the plaintiff was without other remedy, there is no doubt equity would relieve [illegible] the deed or compel a new deed from the corporation.

This case differs in many respects from the suit of a vendee against a vendor where the vendee has parted with the purchase money in good faith and gone into possession under a defective conveyance. In this case if the deeds in question are inoperative the debt is not canceled but is still a [illegible] in the hands of the plaintiff's grantors against the company.

The transaction was an attempt to gain a strict legal advantage on the part of plaintiff's grantors over the claim of the defendant by being made preferred creditors. At its commencement the plaintiff's grantors and the defendant stood upon an equal footing as creditors of the Linn Co. W. M. Co. each having the right to resort to any legal measures to secure the payment of his claim to the exclusion of the other. It is not sufficient that the Linn Co. W. M. Co. intended to pay one claim in preference to the other. It is only sufficient to give priority that such claim was actually paid.

If the defendant had sued out an attachment intending to levy it and had actually taken what he thought was the necessary steps to institute a levy [illegible] the execution of the deed, if the levy proved defective the defect would be none the less fatal because made in good faith, or because the Linn Co. W. M. Co. believed it a good levy and surrendered possession on account of it.

Upon the same principle, if the L. Co. W. M. Co. intended to divest itself of the legal title in favor of the plaintiff's grantors, and to make them preferred creditors and actually did so divest themselves of the title, without fraud, before the defendant Monteith obtained a lien on the premises, Monteith's claim is groundless. But an intention to sell without an actual sale would not deprive Monteith of his right as a creditor to levy on the property.

Nor will the fact that the plaintiff has made valuable improvement change the rights of the parties or create an equity.

When the parties were each simply creditors of the Linn Co. W. M. Co. their rights and the equity and justness of the claim of each were equal; each resorted to such measures as he thought legal and judicious to secure payment of his demand. In pursuing those measures neither party has reposed any trust in the other, and neither has made himself responsible to the other, by inducing the other to act upon his or their representation. If either has acquired any additional legal rights there is no superior equity to prevent the party from having the benefit of the legal right acquired and the decision of the case must depend on the legal rights of the parties. The legal rights of the parties depend upon whether the instruments marked "I" and "S" are sufficient to convey the interest of the Linn Co. W. M. Co. to plaintiff's grantors.

Argument is not necessary to establish the position that the deed of a corporation must be sealed with the corporate seal. But it does not follow that the seal must be of any particular form, or that it must be impressed on the instrument in any particular manner. It may be, like the seals used in this case, the word "seal" surrounded by a scroll. If that is in fact the seal adopted by the corporation as its corporate seal, it is sufficient. In the case of Mill dam Foundry vs. Hovey 21 Pick. 417, one of the seals was held to be that of the corporation although other parties joined in the execution of the instrument and the seals consisted of a wafer and a small bit of paper stamped with the common desk seal of a merchant.

If the instrument is in fact sealed by the corporation with their corporate seal, it is immaterial that there are other seals attached to the same instrument, and that there are more seals than there are parties executing the instrument. Nor are words expressly stating that the corporation has affixed its seal, indispensable. This is distinctly held in the case above cited.

The case of Bank of Metropolis vs. Guttschlick 14 Pet. 19, cited by appellant, sustains the position that a corporation may make a binding contract without using its corporate seal, if a case can be said to sustain a position that is not controverted by either party. But it does not intimate that a corporation can make a conveyance of land without using its corporate seal. In that case the important and controverted words were "The Bank of the Metropolis, through the President and Cashier is hereby pledged, when the above sum (that is, the amount of a certain note) is paid to convey the said lot in fee simple to said Ernest Guttschlick his heirs or assignees forever." The instrument did not purport to convey land. It was a mere agreement to sell.

The question did not arise whether or not a corporation could make a conveyance without the use of its corporate seal. It was objected "that the agreement sued on, is averred to have been made by the bank 'through the President and Cashier' without averring their authorization by the bank to make it." In determining the question the Court say "when, then, it is averred that the bank, by them, agreed, this averment in effect imports the very thing, the supposed want of which constitutes the objection, because upon the assumption stated, the bank could have made no agreement but by agents having lawful authority. Nay, it would have been sufficient in our opinion that the bank agreed, without the words 'through the President and cashier' for it is a rule in pleading that facts may be stated according to their legal effect. Now the legal effect of an agreement made by an agent for his principal whilst the agent is acting within the scope of his authority, is, that it is the agreement of the principal." The action being assumpsit to recover back money paid in pursuance of the contract, the title having failed, it was objected that plaintiff's remedy was in covenant. The Court overruled that objection and says "although the agreement is under seal, it is not the seal of the corporation but that of the President and Cashier."

The cases cited by the appellant do not sustain the position that the deeds of the Directors convey the legal title of the corporation, and it may be assumed as settled law that the deeds do not have that effect unless they are the deeds of the corporation.

There are several particulars appearing on the face of the deeds marked "I" and "S" that aid in determining whether they are the deeds of the corporation or the deeds of individuals.

One of these circumstances, and perhaps the least one, is that the number of seals correspond to the number of individuals who describe themselves as "the parties" of the first part. One that appears of weight is, that in the attesting clause they declare, in the one deed, that they "have hereunto set their hands and affixed their seals," and in the other "witness our hands and seals," using the plural both in regard to the number of seals and the number of individuals executing. But a still stronger indication that it is not the deed of the corporation is that its signers declare, both in the body of the instrument and the attestation, that they act "for and in behalf of the Linn County Woolen Mills Company." If an agent or attorney execute the deed of a principal he must execute it in the name of the principal.—Spencer vs. Field, 10 Wend. 88.

If this was intended as a deed of the corporation the corporation should have been one of the parties to the contract. But the four individuals who subscribe their names are declared to be the parties of the first part. They describe themselves the one as President and the other three as Directors, but it is themselves that they declare have granted, bargained and sold. The language does not import a sale by the corporation, but they declare that they have granted, bargained and sold the premises for the corporation. The corporation alone can perform that act. The conclusion is unavoidable that the parties executing the instrument intended the seals used as their individual seals and not that they were or believed they were then attaching the corporate seal to the instrument. In Stone vs. Wood 7 [illegible] 454, Wood describes himself as agent of I. and R. Raymond, but it was held that Wood and not the Raymonds, was bound. In Fowler vs. Shearer 7 Mass. 19 the instrument was in the form "Know ye that I, Abigail Fowler of &c. and also as attorney to John Fowler in consideration &c. have given." It was held that this was not the deed of John Fowler. Parsons, Ch. Justice, said in that case: "If an attorney has authority to convey lands he must do it in the name of the principal. It is not sufficient that he declares that he does it for and in behalf of the principal, the principal must grant the land or it is not granted."

This doctrine is too thoroughly established to admit of question and authorities are abundant that sustain the position.

The same rule governs in regard to corporations, both public and private.—Story on Agency, § 49; Bank of Columbia vs. Patterson, [illegible] Cranch 299, 388; Damon vs. Inhab. of Granby 2 Pick. 345.

The decree of the Circuit Court dismissing the bill must be affirmed.

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
Weekly Oregonian.
FOR 1869.

Nineteenth Volume!

Only $3.00 a Year.

By common consent the OREGONIAN ranks first among the papers published in the Northwest. It is the oldest paper in the State and its circulation and influence are greater than that of any other two papers combined. As a journal of enterprise in gathering the latest intelligence and in giving in each issue a larger amount and greater variety of reading matter it has no competitor. It is thoroughly identified with this city and State and neighboring Territories, where the number of its readers and its influence are constantly increasing.

An unflinching advocate of sound Union principles, it at the same time pays special attention not only to MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST, but to every thing of moment to the great

Agricultural, Manufacturing,
AND MINING INTERESTS,

And to the development of the resources and settlement of the Northwest.

Its columns contain a carefully prepared digest of

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF
Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana,

TELEGRAMS FROM

are published as full as in the California journals, and put before our readers from ONE TO THREE DAYS BEFORE ANY OTHER PAPER IN THE STATE.

Among its corps of writers are regular correspondents at New York and Washington City, men who, having lived in this State, are able to write on Eastern affairs, both politically and commercially from an Oregon stand point.

Its Literary and General Selections are from the best sources.

EXTENDED AND RELIABLE

are furnished every week, giving the Financial, Dry Goods, Hardware and General Market Reports of Portland, and the latest reports by Telegraph of the San Francisco and New York markets. These reports are acknowledged to be the most accurate published in the State.

In every department it will be, as it has been, the foremost in the State in the field of journalism. Being firmly established, it will go forward with confidence, making new plans for improvement and usefulness, and hopes to gain increased circulation and support.
